

When you think of God's leading in your life there are two places to go...

Listening to His Voice
Reading His Verses

We know as we reflect upon the Resurrection that God is not dead, he is very much alive. Since we serve a God who is alive and not dead we also walk in the fact that He speaks. Over and over Jesus says in the gospel, "for those who have ears to hear, let them hear." He says not everybody is going to listen, but for those who listen, I have something to say. When we come to God in prayer it is not just a way for us to tell Him things, prayer is a conversation, where God tells us things as well. Prayer is communication...talking and listening, as in every other relationship we have. So God, I believe, delights in guiding His children through His Voice.

The other way God guides is through what He has already spoken...His Word. This is so important that we get into the Word of God and know what it says. God in no way today will contradict what He shared in His Word. There is great instruction into the ways of God that are found in His Word.

Leading us as our Father through Verses of the Word and His Voice we hear today.
